To whom it may concern,

This is a written statement of the facts regarding State of Wisconsin VS Chester Voss

I Chester Voss owner / operator of A Home Around The Corner and A Auto Emporium attest that around December of 2019 I began getting visits from the West Bend Police Department. The complaint of one of my staff stating that she was being harrassed. I explained to the detective that the staff was disruntled due to drug usage and an upcoming eviction. I was arrested and released, the DA would not procede with the charge.

On December 20, 2019 the same detective returned again to my office. This time he stated that I was having sex with a client. Apparently the detective had gotten the one staff and a client that I had removed form my operation; to go in concert and cause undue damage to my company. The two parties had given him a false distription of my genitals. He Would not take my word or the option to view the area in question. I was arrested again. I was placed in jail over the x mas weekend for 4 days. On Monday December 23,2019, the day of which I was scheduled to have the one staff evicted and could not due to my incarceration at 4:30 pm I was given a hearing regarding the charges of 1st Degree sexual Assault / Treatment Faacility.

The DAs office could not procede requesting 30 days to investigate the matter. All of my clients and staff were removed from our unit during the x mas holidays where they all did not have a good x mas.

My company was forced to close up where there was no evidence of any wrong doings. The evidence that the DA had did not add up on December 20, 2019 and it did not add up on June 1, 2020. I had been in business at that location for 5 years, contracting with the state, county, and city for services. We delivered Meals on Wheels 3-5 days a week as well as delivered 350 Booster News Papers. I have a son who is disabled and the reason of my mission. None of this was given cocideration. I attest that I am a minority and that the DA s office, the West Bend

Police Department, one of my staff and a client acted in concert to do malicious harm to myself.

I had to post a $5,000.00 cash bond in order that I might go home after having being given a $ 10,000.00 signature bond. The DA stated that if I could afford an attorney, that I could afford the $5000.00 cash bond. The DA offered me 3 pleas; 1) 40 years 2) 10 years 3) life probation all of which I had to register as a sexual offender.

If I didn't have the support and had taken any of the offers that were made to me I would be in jail RIGHT NOW.

I attest that the DA waited until we paid the attorney over $40,000.00 before they released the charges.

I attest that a company that was minority owned with over $400,000.00 revenue was closed up without any consideration.

I attest that 5 of my clients during a holiday weekend were displaced and have yet to have recourse.

I attest that a client made a false complaint and nothing has been said or done so that the client can not do such a thing again.

I attest that a West Bend Police Department detective conspired with two people to distort myself and my company.

I ask that your office help me find a recourse and a recovery of my rights.

Thank You
